1. Collect the institute and universities data from IPEDS .
2. Create a home page using HTML and CSS.
   - Search page.
   - Advanced search based on location, fields.
3. Create institute page will have information about that particular institute including fee, eligibility criteria and selection criteria.
4. Create a Login and SignUp page.
   - Forgot password or change password page
5. Create a user profile page and store data.
   - Update or add data to the academic profile
   - Change his(or) her personal information
6. Create a predictor and give results based on the user interests, profile and status.
   - If a 4th year B. Tech student wants to go to a particular university then based on his academic record and GRE score , the chances of getting an admission will be given.